Welcome home to this stunning Osprey Island residence. Immaculately presented and ready for your immediate enjoyment, this home showcases a superb fusion of space, style and user friendly separation for the growing family or dual living.

The open plan design incorporates a spacious living and meals area adjoining the kitchen with stone benchtops, European appliances, gas cooktop and an abundance of storage cupboards including a pantry. In addition to the media room the guest quarters boast a functional children's retreat or extra living space.

Extending out from the living area the spectacular undercover patio area is the perfect place for entertaining, idyllically connected to the swimming pool with water feature and fully fenced safe backyard.
